

KENTUCKY COUNSELING ASSOCIATION
KCA CONFERENCE
October 24-26, 2012
The Galt House Hotel Louisville, KY

Special Opportunity for Supervision Training
(Pre-conference Workshop)

As of March 2010, a regulation was passed requiring all supervisors of LPCAs to complete a 3 hour workshop that covers the following areas:

- 1) The Law (KRS 335.00)
- 2) Supervision Theory
- 3) Ethics in Supervision

All Supervisors (LPCC, LCSW, Psychologists, MFT, etc.) providing supervision to LPCAs must complete this training every three years.

WHEN: Wednesday, October 24, 2012 (1-4pm)

WHERE: The Galt House Hotel

WHAT: LPCA Supervision Training

WHY: Required credential to supervise LPC Associates

A free luncheon will be provided for all LPCA's and LPCC's at the conference. It will be jointly sponsored by both KCA and the LPC Board.*

This is a GREAT OPPORTUNITY for counselors new to or preparing for the supervision role or for anyone that needs to renew their credentials.

Presenter: Tim Robertson, (MA, LPCC) is past chair of the Kentucky Board of Licensed Professional Counselors and works for ECU, NKU and LWC as an instructor.

Easy online registration at www.kyca.org KCA 2012 Annual Conference
If you have already registered, please share this with a friend!

Free Parking for Attendees 1-800-350-4KCA